10. Large scale employment oppor, tunities are provided by the Railways. Nationalised Banks and Publi$_c$ Sector Enterprisas. In thes$_e$ cases also the concerned departments should ensure that special consideration is given to recruitment from minority communities.

11. In many areas recruitment is done through competitive examinations. Often minority groups have been handicapped in taking advantage of the educational system to compete on equal terms in such examinations. T$_0$ help them to overcom$_e$ these handicaps, steps should be taken to encourage the starting of coaching classes in minority educational institutions to train persons to compete successfully in these examinations.

12. The acquisition of technical skills by those minorities who are to day lagging behind would also help in national development. Arrangements should be made to set up ITIs and polytechnics by Government or pri vate agencies in predominently mi nority areas to encourage admission in such institutions of adequate num ber of persons belonging to these communities.

IM. Other Measures

13. In various development pro grammes, including the 20-Point Pro gramme, care should be taken to see that minorities secure in a fair and adequate measures the benefits flowing therefrom. In th$_e$ various committees which ar$_e$ set up to oversee the implementation of such programmes, members of those communities should be actively involved.

14. Apart from the general issues to which I have referred ther$_e$ ar$_e$ vari ous local problems which develop into needless irritants to minorities. For instance encroachment of Wakf pro perties and on graveyards hav$_e$ led to protests and grievances in some plac es. Suitable steps should b$_e$ taken to deal with such problems on an ex peditious and satisfactory basis.

15. Problems relating to minorities need to b$_e$ attended to on a continuing basis so that apprehensions are allayed and genuin$_e$ grievances redressed. To facilitate this, a special cell will be created in the Ministry of Home Aflairs to deal with matters relating to minorities.

(a) whether H 's a fact that Maharashtra is a deficit State in foodgrains production and depends upon supplies from the Central Government;

(b) the actual requirements of food, grains, rice and wheat of that State during the last year and this year;

(c) whether that State has requested for increased allocations of foodgrains from the Central Pool; and

(d) whether the request has been acceded to?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI D. L. BAITHA): (a) Yes. Sir, Maharashtra is one of the deficit States in production of foodgrains. However, the allocation of foodgrains to vari, ons States|UT$_s$ from Central Pool under PDS is only supplemental to open market availability and these allocations are made on month to month basis, taking into account the overall availability of stocks in tile Central Pool, relative needs of the various States, market availability and other related factors.

(b) Demands for allocation of foodgrains (wheat and rice) under PDS are received on month to month basis from the States|UTs. Maharashtra Government had demanded 23.80 lakh tonnes of foodgrains (wheat and nce) during the year 1988 and 6.55 lakh tonnes during the current year upto March, 1989.

(c) and (d) Yes, Sir. As a result of a review of allocations of various States|UTs undertaken in the light of the stocks of foodgrains in the Central Pool and better market availability in the wake of a bum, iper crop kbriff paddy and coarse-grains, the rice quota of most States, including Maharashtra, has been reduced by 20 per cent from February, 1989. The rice allocation to Maharashtra has accordingly been reduced from 65,000 tonnes in January to 52.000 tonnes per month from February, 1989. The allocation of wheat to Maharashtra has, however, been raised from 90,000 tonnes in January, 1989 to 94,500 tonnes for February 1989, and further to 1,00000 tonnes for March, 1989.
